SGT. PETER McPOLIN WAY STREET DEDICATION

On Monday, September 29th retired NYPD Sgt. Peter McPolin will be memorialized, as the street he grew up on and where his Mom still resides in Staten Island will be ceremoniously renamed in his honor. Pete's beloved Greencroft Avenue at Keegans Lane will be forever known as Sgt. Peter McPolin Way. Family and friends will gather for the 11:00 am ceremony along Greencroft Avenue between Keegans Lane and Ainsworth Avenue. Many of Pete's friends from the neighborhood, Msgr. Farrell HS, the NYPD, the Knights of Columbus, the AOH, Pennsylvania and his Finest Fence business are expected to join in for this uplifting occasion. Afterwards Jamie and the McPolin Family will be hosting a luncheon at the K of C Staten Island Council Hall at nearby 22 Hillside Terrace. While there, stories remembering the heroic and hilarious times of Pete's remarkable life will no doubt be shared.

Kindly RSVP if you can join in for this tribute to Pete.
