Day 3 – March 31, 2020: Tuesday

Nashville - Step-On Tour Guide to accompany group with daily activities including, a guided city tour: This 3 hour tour will take you through the heart of our downtown area and past many of our historic buildings, including the Ryman Auditorium, Tootsie’s world-famous Orchid Lounge, Honky Tonk Highway, Tennessee's State Capitol, Bicentennial Mall State Park, Music Row, Vanderbilt University, Centennial Park including an exact replica of the Parthenon, and much more! Please let us know of any special interest you may have so we will be sure to include it on your tour.

Free time Downtown.

Santa Fe Cattle Co. - Tour Group Meal without Dessert: Enjoy a delicious dinner at Santa Fe Cattle Co. Meal includes choice of 6 oz sirloin, southern fried catfish, grilled chicken, or ribs with baked potato, salad and non-alcoholic beverages.

Grand Ole Opry - Gold (Price Level 2 Seating)- Tour Group: Experience the world’s longest running live radio show, The Grand Ole Opry! What began as a simple radio broadcast in 1925 is today an entertainment phenomenon showcasing a mix of country music greats– new stars, superstars, and legends.

Grand Ole Opry - Opry House Post-Show Tour: Now you can take the tour right after the world-famous Grand Ole Opry show! After you watch the show, see what it's like behind the scenes! Walk in the footsteps of superstars and get an exclusive look at what happens on the other side of the curtain of the show that made country music famous — right after the show ends! This tour is available on nights when there is only one Grand Ole Opry show. You'll visit the artist entrance where everyone has walked in for the show earlier that night, and you may even have the chance to step on stage and into the famed wooden circle just as a parade of artists have done a few minutes earlier. You'll also get a glimpse of some of the Opry's 18 uniquely themed dressing rooms, which help tell part of the Opry story that Darius Rucker and Opry announcer Bill Cody will share via videos.

Post-show tours often also make a stop in Studio A, a live television studio and former home of HEE HAW. After you take in an Opry performance, let us officially say, "Welcome to the Family!"

Day 4 – April 1, 2020: Wednesday

This morning as a group we will tour the Ryman Auditorium and the Country Music Hall of Fame & Museum. Then will have an Old Town Trolley- Nashville – 2 Days Hop-On/Hop-Off Pass to further explore on our own during free time Downtown Nashville. Trolley pick up at the Gaylord Opryland Resort.
